

Every dog will have his day owoooo!

Every Dog Will have its Day

You can give a dog a kicking You can give a dog a bone
If you give your dog a kicking Don't expect him to come home
You can call your dog a mongrel You can call your dog a stray
Remember in the end that Every dog will have his day

Every dog will have his day Every dog will have his day
Every dog will have his day

You can treat your dog with kindness treat your dog with grace
Just remember in the end Every dog must know his place
Every dog knows his master Every dog knows his boss
But whenever you run faster It's the dog who ends up lost

Every dog must have his day Every dog must have his day
Every dog must have his day .. yeah
